CULTURE OF ROSES FOR BEST RESULTS

Roses prefer a good garden loam with a plentiful supply of organic matter incorporated. Soils of this nature retain moisture well and roses like plenty of moisture but resent wet feet. Provide for drainage if the rose bed is located where water does not drain readily.

If soil is hard or drainage poor dig out the rose bed to a depth of 2 feet and fill the bed with a few inches of stone in the bottom for drainage and cover the stones with fertile soil. Mix 10% Peat Moss in soil used for back fill. Tamp backfill firmly until hole is half-filled, FLOOD WITH WATER. After back-filling use 2 tablespoons of G&O Rose Food on the surface, never at the roots.

GRASS SEED

Barrs Finest Quality

Barr's Lawn Grass Seed Mixtures have been designed primarily to produce a lawn that is permanent, quick starting, and a good green color. Recleaned by modern machinery, Barr's Lawn Grass Seed Mixtures are free from chaff, which makes these mixtures go twice as far. They test especially high in germination, providing a thick stand which is essential in holding weeds in check.

One pound of seed will sow to 200 square feet of lawn. Keep ground constantly moist until grass is well started then water heavily at intervals during dry periods.

How to Plant and Prune Ornamental Shrubs

INFORMATION

Remove about one-third of top growth of shrub at planting time if Spring planted, or following Spring, if Fall planted, to facilitate establishment of plant. Thereafter, pruning should be done to remove old wood and keep plant to size desired. Cut off damaged or frayed roots just above the point affected. Be careful to have roots exposed to air or sun as little as possible at any time.

Before Pruning

After Pruning

The important point in planting is to have the hole large enough to accommodate the roots without crowding, and to get the soil well worked in among the roots. Space the larger growing shrubs 5-6 ft. apart, medium growers 4 ft., low growers, 3 ft.

A basin-shaped saucer should remain around each plant 2-3 inches deep. Water thoroughly once a week at least the first summer after planting.

When and How to Plant Evergreens

Evergreens transplant best during the Spring months, before and just as new growth is beginning, or for several months following August 15 when the new growth is completed and has become sufficiently hardened.

The excavation for planting should be considerably larger and deeper than the encased roots so as to allow liberal space around the ball for filling in with rich soil. Do not remove bur-lap, only loosen it at top and roll back as indicated in illustration.

Carefully pack soil around earth ball. Tamp back-fill firmly until hole is half-refilled. FLOOD WITH WATER. Mix 10% Peat Moss in the soil used for back fill, and  $\frac{1}{8}$  lb. Vigoro, or Agrico on the surface after planting, never at the roots.

Before applying the fertilizer, provide a basin-shaped saucer which should remain around the trunk deep enough to hold 2-3 inches of water. Water thoroughly once a week, at least the first summer after planting.

Nightly spray the foliage and direct a STRONG force of water against the under side of the foliage, when the sun is not shining. This treatment preserves the vigor and beauty of the plant.

Many Garden Accessories, not catalogued are in stock to aid you in your garden needs: Sprayers, Dusters, Water Soakers, Garden Hose, Garden Gloves, Garden Tools, Trellises, Flower Boxes, Bird Baths, Jardinieres.
